

CELEBRATION ANNUAL DAY FOUNDER'S DAY THEATRICAL PRODUCTION

A school's Annual Theatrical Production is one of the most looked forward to days. While parents enjoy in the revelry, it is a much remembered day for students long after they have departed school.

Working towards this day, and the process involved leads to the discovery, establishing and practise of several KEY Transferable Life Skills. Children develop and strengthen their:

- Communication Skills
- Creativity
- Teamwork and Collaboration
- Working to deadlines
- Performance skills, and most importantly
- Builds Confidence

Our Annual Day Production Consulting Service makes light of the work and provides schools with access to a professional group who guide and steer all the processes involved. Members of our team have Diplomas in Speech & Drama, Dance, Communication Skills, Performance and Teaching. We get involved and work jointly with the teachers and team in the following areas:

1. Selection of Play
2. Devising a bespoke Script
3. Working with the Production Team
4. Auditions
5. Rehearsals
6. Set Design
7. Costume Design
8. Lighting and Sound Design
9. Technical Rehearsals
10. Dress Rehearsals
11. Final Day Performances

ABOUT NOVUS HORIZONS LLP | What do we do

Novus Horizons LLP is an education services firm headquartered in Chennai with offices in Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Kolkata. The founders of Novus Horizons are well established industry professionals from the fields of Education and the Arts for over 100 years and represent Trinity College London in India. The firm has 3 verticals.

1. The Life Skills Academy (LSA)
2. The Thought Leaders Collective (TLC), and
3. Trinity College London Exams in North India.

The Life Skills Academy (LSA)

LSA is devoted to equipping students and teachers in subject areas that concern Transferable Life skills and subject proficiencies.